If you have had any symptoms or have been exposed to anyone with COVID-19 or with COVID-19 symptoms within the past 14-days, we ask you do not come to class and reschedule to another date.

Study sheets for your class are available at the Student Resource Page on our website. Feel free to print off any student resources from our website and bring with you to training.

Checklist – please bring the following to class

- BLS online certificate of completion
- ACLS Pretest scoring page
- PALS Pretest scoring page

You will start by copying and pasting the course link in the browser. You will be brought to AHA eLearning. You will then click on the magnifying glass on the top right.

You will want to type in the code exactly as it is shown in your confirmation email, all caps KJ-1480 or KJ-1485

You will select “Launch this Course” and should be able to get started.

If you are asked for a Training Center Access code or asked to pay for a course, you will need to close out all your tabs and start from the beginning.

Once the online course is completed, please email info@cprconsultants.com a copy of your certificate OR pre-test score of 70% or above. Pictured on the next page.
